

DRIVER EDUCATION BEHIND-THE-WHEEL (BTW)
INFORMATION SHEET

The cost for the Driver Education is payable in two installments:

- * $150 upon registration for Driver Education Classroom
- * $249 upon registration for Driver Education Behind-the-Wheel

- All rates are subject to change.
- You must have your driver's instruction permit to apply for BTW. You may take your instruction permit test at any Minnesota Driver's license exam station. The closest stations are in Faribault and Eagan. No appointments are needed for the test.
- Sign up for BTW as soon as possible after you have passed your instruction permit test as there may be a 3 to 4 month waiting list. There may be a longer waiting period during the spring and summer.
- You will be called approximately one week before you are scheduled for BTW. Meet at the Northfield High School for BTW.
- During BTW, an additional BTW student or instructor may accompany the BTW driver as an observer only.
- If you are under 19 years of age, you need to wait 6 months after you receive a permit to take your driver's road test.
- If you are 19 or older, you need to wait 3 months before you may take your driver's road test.
- After completing six hours of BTW, you will receive a Certificate of Completion, referred to as a white card. Keep it in a safe place as you will need this card to take your driver's road test. Cost for replacement of lost or damaged cards is $10.
